Friday Family Fun Night: May 19

Friday Food Trucks and Free Family Movie Night, 5-8pm!

Everyone is invited to gather at Skypark, Scotts Valley, for a community fun night, where we will bring our beach blankets, grab some food at the many food truck options, and look for the St. Philip's Banner on the lawn. We will fellowship with food and fun while waiting for dark when they will start the movie "Finding Dory." If you just want to come for food and fellowship that's ok too! (Ok to bring your own food, don't have to be restricted to food trucks.)

ALL AGES WELCOME!

Morris Family Visit Slated for Late July

Greetings to all our friends at St Philip's! Our house swap plans for this summer didn't quite come off, but we have decided to come out to California anyway. We will be staying in Santa Cruz between 27 July and 3 August. We plan to be at St Philip's on Sunday 30 July and look forward to seeing you all then. If you would like to meet up with us at some other time during that week, please contact us on morrisr5@sky.com or via Facebook.

Diocesan Spring Conference ~ May 20th, 10 AM - 3 PM

Saturday, May 20, 10-3, a workshop conference led by National Episcopal Church Evangelism leader, Rev. Thomas Brackett. St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Salinas. Pastor Mary met Rev. Brackett when he led a 3 day clergy conference and says he is a compassionate, engaging leader who helps congregations find their own comfort zone with how to share and invite others into faith community. Let's bring a team of St. Philip's members to learn how to build stronger relationships of Christian fellowship. Questions? Interested? Contact Pastor Mary at pastor.stphilips.sv@gmail.com. Details at realepiscopeal.org/event/spring-conference-2017-with-tom-brackett/?instance_id=434

"Paradoxy : Creating Christian Community Beyond Us and Them"

Sunday, May 28 , after the 10am service.

We will be discussing the first three chapters of the book. The questions at the end of each chapter, and scriptures quoted in the book will help us begin discussion. Even if you couldn't attend the first meeting, please know you are still welcome to join us.

Tina Grubbe has extra copies of the book if you need a copy. An online PDF download version is also available at:
