Coffee Hour Celebrating Donna Jones

Join today in celebrating 50 years of loyal volunteer service with Miss California, doing everything from makeup to Chairman of the Board. "She's been from the ground floor up ... so there's no one in this organization doing a job that Donna doesn't understand". Donna was originally drawn to continue in the organization when she learned just what they do for the young woman who participate – "empowering them to be the best versions of themselves".

Tween & Teen Dance

The Discovery Learning Center is putting on their first Homeschool Dance for tweens and teens this coming Sunday, July 15th, from 7-9 pm in our Parish Hall. There will have a great DJ, and BBQ food and beverages will be included with the $10 admittance.

There will also be a quiet board game area set up in a separate room where kids who might be overwhelmed by the sensory stuff at the dance, or just need a break, can hang out in a different environment.

We need Coffee Hour Angels!

If you are looking for a way to help that doesn't take much time, and you enjoy feeding people and puttering in the kitchen, then the Coffee Hour Ministry might be for you. I've heard from some people that they're intimidated by all the coffee machines in our kitchen (they do seem to multiply like rabbits!). Please don't be -- there's usually someone around to make the actual coffee. I'm also happy to show you how. Being a Coffee Hour Host only takes an hour or two, and we really need people to sign up so that we can enjoy fellowship together after church. You can sign up manually on the sign-up sheet in the foyer, or do it online through Signup Genius:

A Fond Farewell to Charlotte

Charlotte Hoogasian was given a festive good-bye celebration, enjoying our sundae Sunday the day before taking off to return to her native Massachusetts.

Charlotte came four years ago to spend active years with her daughter Linda and son-in-law Ray here in Scotts Valley. Not only was St. Philip's blessed with her presence, her warm heart, generous contributions and her hard-working compassionate ministry with our Food Pantry, but she also attended and served at San Agustin's Catholic Community with Linda.

Charlotte gave her abundant love to serving at Scotts Valley Senior Center and in so many gentle ways throughout our community.

Recently Charlotte found it important to reconsider her health and timeline for returning to Massachusetts to spend her remaining years with her grandchildren and even great-grandchildren in the Brookfield, Massachusetts area. For her send-off, our very creative Barbara Lyon thought it would be fun to serve ice cream sundaes at our 9:00am coffee hour in recognition of Charlotte's numerous Sunday contributions to our sundae piggy bank for Compassionate Ministries.

Charlotte is an avid correspondent and would love to receive snail mail cards or letters from any who feel so moved to write to her. She gives great thanks for excellent friendships and the hospitality St. Philip's showed her over the years. Thank you and bless you all for loving Charlotte.

2nd Monday Book Club

Every second Monday of the month we have a Book Club meeting in the Sanctuary from 10am to 12pm. Everyone is welcome (and friends), even if you haven't read the book! It is a delightful social time and the discussion ranges all over the place, from what's happening in people's lives, to showing the latest grandkid photographs, to world events and finally to the book! Please join us.

Our upcoming book selections are:

Aug 13: The Little Paris Bookshop – Nina George

Sep 10: Truly, Madly, Guilty – Lianne Moriarty

Oct 8: Little Fires Everywhere – Celeste Ng

Nov 12: The Nightingale – Kristin Hannah

Dec 10: Christmas Party with book exchange – no book to read; hosted by a member

Jan 14: The Immortal Life of Henrietta Lacks – Rebecca Skloot

Feb 11: The Rent Collector – Camron Wright
